

DocGo Mobile Health Services Now Available to Cigna Customers in New York and New Jersey

October 4, 2022

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 4, 2022-- DocGo, a leading provider of last-mile mobile health services (Nasdaq: DCGO), announced its mobile health services are now available to Cigna commercial customers in New York and New Jersey, beginning October 1, 2022.

DocGo provides customers with access to quality health care outside of traditional medical facilities with a model designed to help people get access to timely and cost-effective treatments and diagnoses.

"This new agreement allows us to offer our mobile health services to a substantial number of new individuals in New York & New Jersey, furthering our impact in the eastern region of the country," said Anthony Capone, President of DocGo. "We are eager to continue our momentum and provide these new patients with the high quality, convenient and affordable care they need."

DocGo provides access to virtual and in-home options for a wide range of services from annual wellness exams and vaccines to diagnostic tests and evaluations for illnesses, making it easier for individuals to get routine care they need to stay healthy and active without having to leave their home. For those who are sick, recovering from an illness, or recuperating from a visit to a hospital, DocGo provides another home-based care option to help people get better more comfortably and more quickly.

DocGo is working to shape the future of health care by bringing personalized treatment to patients where and when they need it most, breaking down barriers to care and addressing access issues within our current healthcare system.

About DocGo

DocGo is a leading provider of last-mile mobile care services. DocGo is disrupting the traditional four-wall healthcare system by providing high quality, highly affordable care to patients where and when they need it. DocGo's innovative technology and dedicated field staff of certified health professionals elevate the quality of patient care and drive business efficiencies for facilities, hospital networks, and health insurance providers. With Mobile Health, DocGo empowers the full promise and potential of telehealth by facilitating healthcare treatment, in tandem with a remote physician, in the comfort of a patient's home or workplace. Together with DocGo's integrated Ambulnz medical transport services, DocGo is bridging the gap between physical and virtual care. For more information, please visit www.docgo.com.
