

DocGo's EMS Direct Signs Two-Year Contract to Provide Medical Transportation for a Leading Health and Hospital System in Fort Worth

November 26, 2024 at 7:35 AM EST

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Nov. 26, 2024-- DocGo Inc. (Nasdaq: DCGO) ("DocGo" or the "Company"), a leading provider of technology-enabled mobile health services, today announced a new contract for ambulance transport services with one of the largest health and hospital systems in North Texas.

Under this contract, DocGo's subsidiary EMS Direct is providing Basic Life Support, Advanced Life Support, and Critical Care transportation services to Fort Worth facilities. This agreement was signed and operationalized in less than 90 days — underscoring DocGo's agility and responsiveness to the healthcare system's needs.

"Our ability to scale quickly and effectively is one of our key competitive differentiators," said Lee Bienstock, CEO of DocGo. "Our services will help ensure Fort Worth and the surrounding areas have access to top-tier medical transportation services when they're needed, and this contract positions us to invest for additional growth in the Dallas area."

DocGo's EMS Direct proudly serves communities across Texas, and this new agreement reflects the Company's commitment to delivering high-quality healthcare solutions in the Lone Star State – providing patients in Fort Worth and the surrounding areas with greater access to reliable medical transportation services.
